Welcome to a world where you can live out your deepest fantasies...and unearth your darkest desires: Westworld. Inspired by the classic 1973 film written and directed by Michael Crichton, this stunning drama series is set in a western theme park where customers interact with its artificially intelligent residents. The result is a dark odyssey about the dawn of artificial consciousness and the evolution of sin, exploring a place in which every human appetite, no matter how noble or depraved, can be indulged. The sensational cast includes Anthony Hopkins as the park's brilliant founder and Ed Harris as the villainous The Man in Black. Also with Evan Rachel Wood, James Marsden, Thandie Newton and Jeffrey Wright. (AC,AL,GV,N,SC) TVMA/V,S,L-1:08.

Created by Sharon Horgan (Catastrophe), the show centers on Frances (Parker), who, after more than a decade of marriage and two kids, has begun to reassess her life and her strained relationship with husband Robert (Church). For Issa, age 30 is looming large and her relationship has become

A sensitive drama, a sublimely silly spoof of horror chillers, and a wildly imaginative sci-fi comedy make up this month's trio of hidden gems on Cinemax. Robert Duvall gives one of his all-time great performances—winning his only Best Actor Oscar® to date—in the poignant character study Tender Mercies. Duvall plays an alcoholic, broken-down country singer trying to put his life back together after meeting a lonely Texas widow and her young son. On a much lighter note, Steve Martin is hilarious as a mad doctor who falls in love with a brain in a jar, but is seduced by femme fatale Kathleen Turner in Carl Reiner's The Man With The Two Brains. And Dennis Quaid is a daredevil test pilot who is shrunk to microscopic size and accidentally injected into the body of hypochondriac Martin Short in Innerspace, an entertaining sci-fi romp from director Joe Dante (Gremlins) and executive producer Steven Spielberg that won an Oscar® for its visual effects.
